Practical 2: Creating account, repository on Github and Cloning repository in Github
Mention Steps with Screenshot

a) Creating Account

Step 1: Go to Github.com and click on Sign Up

Step 2: Fill in the details and click on create account

After finishing these steps u will receive an Email to verify your account. After verifying the account You're all set to use your GitHub Account
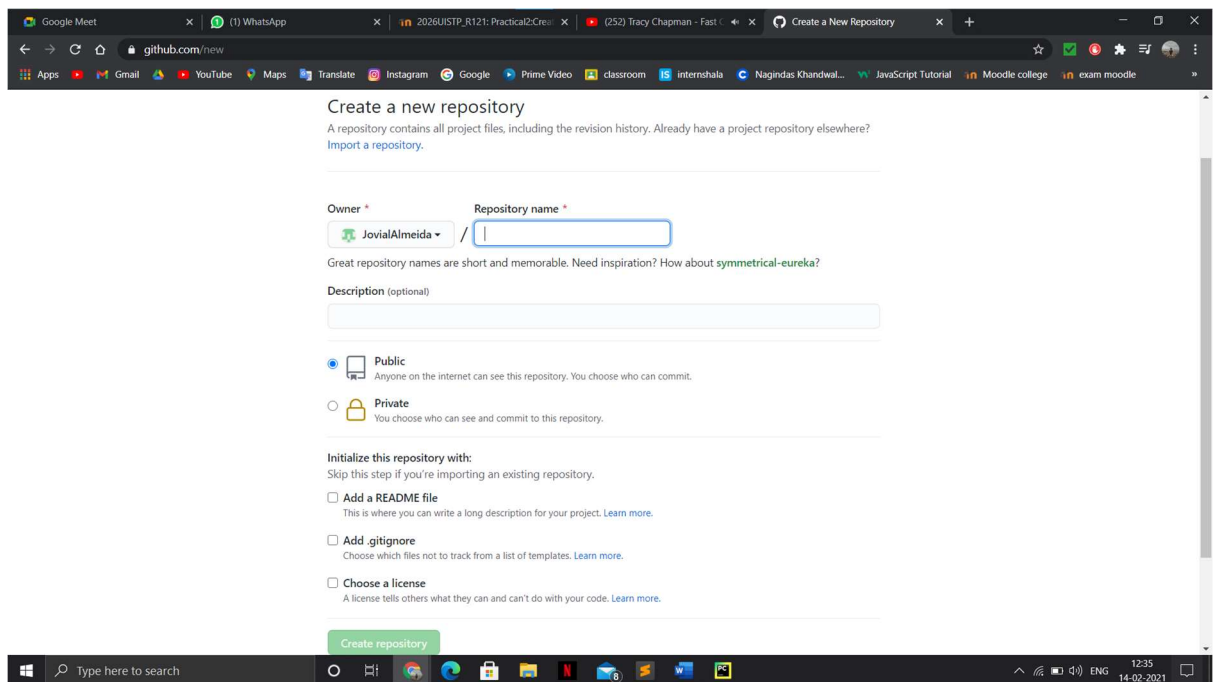

b) Creating Repository

Step1: login in your account and click on Repositories

Step 2: Click on new

Step 3: Enter a Name for your Repository and enter description of the repository if you want. You can choose if you want to make your repository private or public.

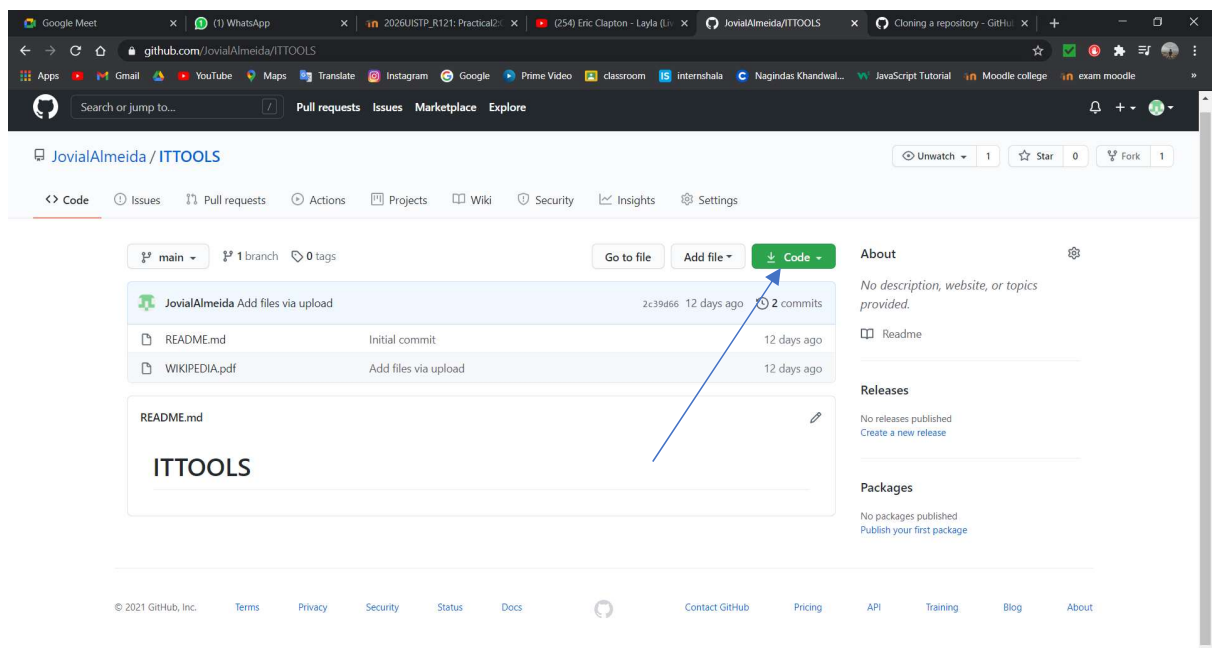

Step3: Click on create repository and your repository is created

c) Cloning repository:

Step 1: go to the repository and click on CODE

Step 2: Select Https and and copy the link provided

Your Repository has been Cloned and You Share the link to others and they can access the repository Directly through the link.